Dedication

In a quiet, strong way, he has become a loved and respected member of our college community. Generously he has given his time, his counsel, and the benefit of his knowledge and experience to his students. Because of his service to the Meredith faculty and student body, we humbly dedicate the 1959 edition of the OAK LEAVES to

DR. DAVID R. REVELEY

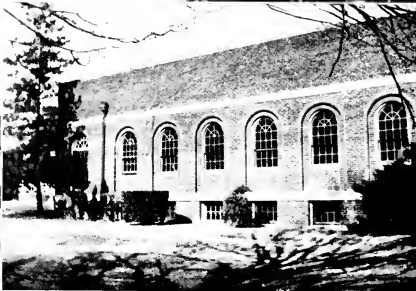

Foreword

Although traditions play an important part in our lives here at Meredith and in our respective communities, we must not lose sight of the fact that we belong, mentally and physically, to the still-developing Twentieth Century. Therefore, this edition of the OAK LEAVES endeavors to link the Meredith of the past to the Meredith of the present and the future.

To Meredith College Students:

In this summary record of major activities for the year 1958-59 there is abundant evidence of substantial achievement and fine fellowship, the enduring character of each being determined by the other. This edition of the OAK LEAVES brings you much pleasure now, and should be treasured even more in the years to follow.

I am indeed grateful for the privilege of identification with you, and shall be greatly interested in your continuing development and usefulness.

Cordially yours,

CLASSES

Senior Class History

Full of joy and confidence, we seniors entered Meredith in the fall. We knew the ropes. This was our last year—forever! This was the beginning of the end.

We looked at the new freshmen, so new—with their new clothes, new permanents, and new books. Yet, we saw our faces, only three years ago, mirrored in their unknowing ones.

We looked at the sophomores with their experienced walk and talk and know-how. We saw ourselves, only two years ago, well-established in our college life.

Then we looked at the juniors with their still more experienced and more practiced ways. We saw ourselves, only one year ago, well-versed on T. S. Eliot and modern jazz.

And last, we looked at ourselves. The year had already begun to slip away, as years do, and we cried a little on the inside. We decided to get the most out of our last year. We began to see Meredith through new eyes. We looked at the faculty, the same faculty we had always known here, and saw dedicated persons trying to mold students into good people for our world. We looked through our “new” eyes and saw our Student Government working for us, not against us as we had sometimes thought. We looked at the brick buildings and campus with love, and felt very different from the ways we had felt many times after returning from a good week end or holiday. We looked at the student body and saw no class or dormitory rivalry—we saw nothing but friends.

We decided that we liked our “new” eyes that Meredith had given us. We decided to keep these eyes for they would help us to see the new world that had been opened to us—opened to us only because we had been a part of Meredith.

Junior Class History

From the care of a class
That we loved, we've grown
Guardians to be
Of Sisters our own.

And we emerged at last—Juniors! How beautiful was that word to our ears! For we knew that this year must, of all years, be ours. Almost immediately we learned that Rush Week held something quite different for Juniors, for in October there was a scramble to see our Sisters go Astro . . . go Phi. Later in the month we gathered our band, and Corn Husking was ours for a Cowboy theme! Stunt Night arrived, and after All These Years the Juniors, the Greeks and Romans, too, were victorious. With Spring came Junior-Senior Banquet and . . . Class Rings. . . .

Something to show, or
Something to know
That we are Juniors!

Sophomore Class History

We travel along the way of Meredith; we look toward our goal of '61 and of June. We have reached the half-way mark on our trail in this pursuit of knowledge, and now stop to rest beneath a shady tree by the way. From here we can see the road behind and the paths that it crosses. The road leads from the doors of high school graduation . . . the paths bear various markings. One is the road to Canterbury—"When that Aprille with his shoures soote"; another to Hamlet—"To be or not to be"; and still others to exams and to hall parties, to term papers and to the daisy chain. Mixed along our road, we see bridge and dates and diamonds and fun. Most important, we look around us and see the friends we have gained and remember the smiles—as well as sorrows—we have shared along the way.

We start to go again. The road is sometimes hidden and steep; but we feel assured by our friends beside us and those who have gone on before. Slowly we move forward—

"And departing leave behind us
Footprints on the sands of time."

The Acorn, Meredith's Literary magazine, is our outlet for free expression. In it we can paint pictures in words that even the greatest artist cannot capture . . . pictures of America's young college women, pictures of their emotions and beliefs, pictures of our time, and pictures of Meredith. Through it we can take advantage of three of America's greatest freedoms—freedom of thought, freedom of speech, and freedom of the press.

I saw a straight line of candles coming down the hall. Behind each candle was a different face. I noticed the short girl with dark hair, the girl with the blue eyes, the tall girl with blond curls. I noticed the thoughtful faces and the bright faces. Each one was different. There was something else I noticed—the smiles on all the faces and the mutual joy and spirit in their singing. I joined the line and began to sing, "This Little Astro Light of Mine." I am an Astro.

The little Astro light shines in our companionship, in the humorous skits, in the Christmas party for the blind children, in society competition, in the singing. Next year there will be again the line of singers, and again eager faces will join the line of smiling faces, the line of ASTROS.

Philaretia of Meredith has magic. The evidences are clear. The ingenuity and originality of the Phis in bermudas laboring joyfully over scripts, sets, and other problems are blended together in the happy harmony of Phi production which produced Phi Magic. Phi voices joined in happy hilarity at carnival antics. The bonfire flickered as the dreams and hopes of many "angels" curled upward from the dancing flames. Majestically the strains of "Behold in shining raiment" floated through the court. The slight mist making halos of "goodnight from the Phis." The darkness of the halls framed the glow of the heartfelt simplicity—"Maybe." The magic traditions of the Phis are lovingly being carried on. The Phis are together.

Greetings from the Day Students! Actually we must apologize for our misleading name. Anyone who goes to Meredith knows that you have to study both day and night to remain a student here. Half of us already have a degree—the M. R. S.

Santa Claus came to see us early this year. First he brought us a wonderful bunch of freshmen and transfers. He scattered honors among our seniors and then! After Thanksgiving what to our amazed and wondering eyes should appear but new floors, new furniture, new frosted window panes! What bliss! What luxury! We hope that all the Meredith Santa Clauses who made this possible are aware of our undying gratitude.

As soon as we became used to our transformed quarters on 2nd floor Johnson, we settled down to other things—like passing exams, registration, Easter vacation, Spring with a capital S (after all the snow with a capital S that we had to mush through). Play Day again was a big event in the lives of all of us.

We really hate to see our seniors leave us, for they have been leaders of the school as well as sparkplugs of the Day Student Organization. Our hope is that we can follow in the tradition of leadership and service to the school which they, and others like them have left us.

HONORARIES

Silver Shield

HAZEL WIGGINS, President

JEAN STROLE HOLLAND, Vice-President

GELYNDA THOMAS, Secretary-Treasurer

Members: Bobbie Conley Carpenter

Ann Fuller

Joyce Hargrove

Associate Members: Mary Ann Brown

Judy McLamb

Faculty Advisors: Dr. Norma Rose

Dr. Mary Yarbrough

The idea of the Silver Shield, an honorary leadership society, originated with members of the Class of 1933, but no definite organization was set up until the spring of 1935. The purpose of the society is to foster a better spirit on the campus and to recognize outstanding girls who have contributed to life at Meredith. New members are selected from each rising and present Senior Class by members of the organization and the faculty. The selection is made on the basis of Christian character, constructive leadership, service to the school, and scholarship.

Kappa Nu Sigma

Elaine Burleson Clarks

Donna Anne Ellington

Ethyleen Bryson Hobbs

Patricia Johnson

Kallos Nous Sophia—meaning beauty, soundmindedness, and intelligence are the Greek words from which Kappa Nu Sigma takes its name. As the honorary scholastic society of Meredith, Kappa Nu Sigma seeks to encourage and uphold high scholastic excellence on this campus. The society sponsors a chapel in the fall and a special lecture in the spring to stimulate scholarship in all areas. Each year the society awards the Helen Price Scholarship to the freshman having the highest scholastic average. Students are elected to membership on the basis of high scholastic standing achieved over a period of two years. Special recognition is given each spring to the two juniors having the highest average.

Jean Elizabeth Strole

Gelynda Elizabeth Thomas

Elizabeth Adeline Taylor

The organization, Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, recognizes students each year from approximately 750 colleges and universities throughout the country. Members are chosen on the basis of scholarship, participation and leadership in academic and extracurricular activities, citizenship and service to the school, and on promise of future usefulness.

Sigma Phi Alpha

DONNA ELLINGTON
President

MARY ANN BROWN
Vice-President

JOY GOLDSMITH
Treasurer

The Phi Kappa Chapter of Sigma Phi Alpha, national modern foreign language fraternity, seeks to stimulate an interest in and to bring about a better understanding of foreign countries. Because of the relative closeness of nations in our modern society, the importance of foreign languages has increased. To emphasize this importance and to increase interest on this campus, the fraternity recognizes students of foreign language having high scholastic standings and interest in language study. Other activities are sponsored throughout the year to foster interest.

Sigma Alpha Iota

BARBARA SMITH
President

GLENDA PRESSLEY
Vice-President

GAIL NEWTON

MARGARET MORGAN
Treasurer

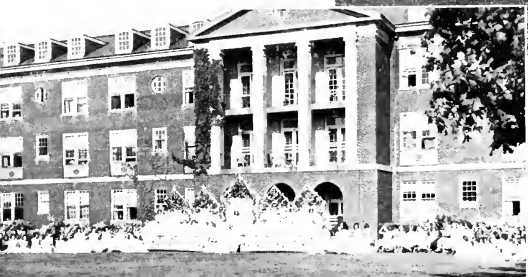

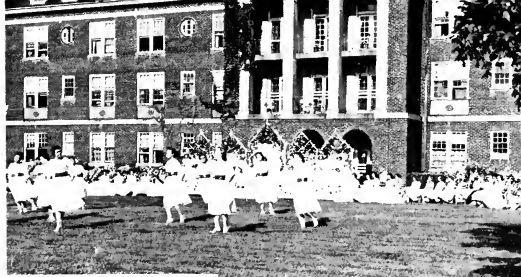

Sigma Alpha Iota is a national professional music fraternity for women. Its members are music majors chosen upon faculty and fraternity recommendation on the basis of high character, scholarship, and musical ability. The fraternity's activities include musicales by chapter members, receptions, and exchange programs with other similar organizations. Among the other activities which the fraternity sponsors are a Faculty Recital, Fashion Show, and Modern American Music Recital. The fraternity offers many advantages, both social and professional, to its members.

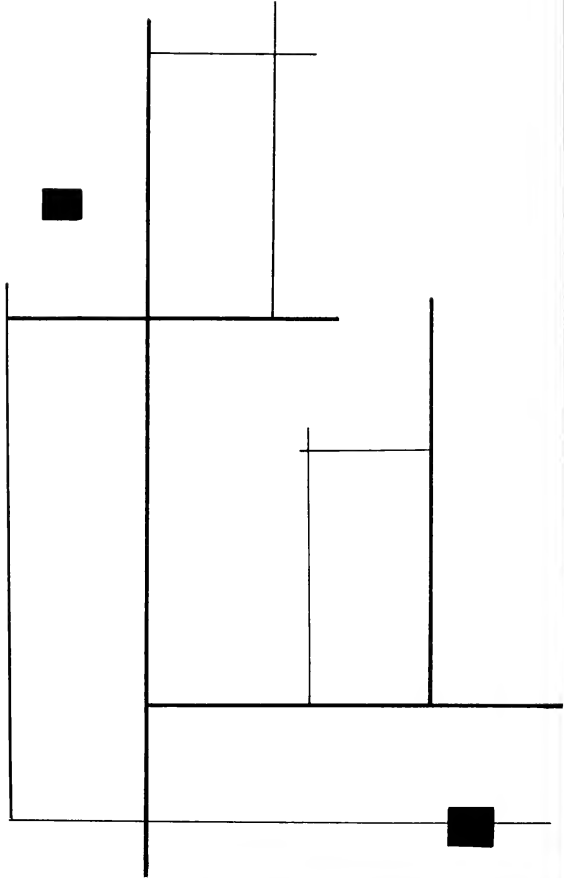

Alpha Psi Omega

PAT MAYNARD
President

Sponsored by the Playhouse, the Eta Nu Chapter of Alpha Psi Omega was the first national honorary society on the Meredith campus, having been installed in May, 1938. This national honorary dramatics fraternity recognizes the achievements of those who love the theater and its activities and of those who have excelled in dramatic endeavor connected with the college producing agent, the Playhouse. Membership is based on the quality as well as the hours of work done in campus productions. Fifty points gained by such work qualify one for membership.
